Re: [REDACTED]
Request for Deferred Action

Dear Ms. Canossa:

On June 15, 2012, Secretary Napolitano issued a memorandum entitled "Exercising Prosecutorial Discretion with Respect to Individuals Who Came to the United States as Children". Immigration and Customs Enforcement has reviewed the case of [REDACTED] with regards to this memorandum.

Based upon a thorough review of the record, and the facts and circumstances presented, ICE has decided to exercise prosecutorial discretion and approve deferred action for [REDACTED]

This decision is conditioned on the following: Keep ICE informed of changes of address, and report any arrests or convictions to ICE, through the assigned Deportation Officer

This deferred action shall be in effect for a period of two years from the date of this letter. During this time, your client must remain in compliance with the conditions stated above. Failure to remain in compliance with these conditions may result in a reconsideration of this decision.

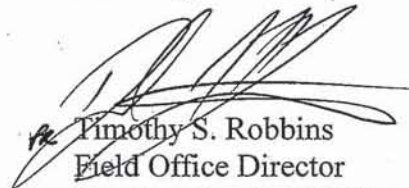

This decision is not an immigration benefit and does not confer any lawful immigration status. It may be terminated at any time if the circumstances of this case no longer warrant deferred action. Your client may apply to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services for employment authorization consistent with 8 C.F.R. § 274a.12(c)(14).

Any departure from the United States while under Deferred Action, with or without permission from the Department of Homeland Security, may result in inadmissibility to the United States. This decision to grant Deferred Action does not entitle re-admittance or parole back into the United States.

Neither this decision nor this letter constitutes a statement of Department of Homeland Security policy applicable to any other individual or matter.

Sincerely,

Timothy S. Robbins
Field Office Director

Re: [REDACTED], A [REDACTED]
Request for Deferred Action

Dear Ms. Lichter:

On June 15, 2012, Secretary Napolitano issued a memorandum entitled "Exercising Prosecutorial Discretion with Respect to Individuals Who Came to the United States as Children". Immigration and Customs Enforcement has reviewed the case of [REDACTED] with regards to this memorandum.

Deferred action is an administrative convenience to the Government, and is not an entitlement. While there is no formal petition or application for deferred action, we review such requests on a case-by-case basis. Relevant considerations included sympathetic facts and ICE enforcement priorities. There is no judicial review of decisions concerning deferred action.

I have carefully reviewed [REDACTED] case with regards to Secretary Napolitano's June 15, 2012, memorandum as well as applicable DHS policy and guidance.

Based on my review of the record, and the facts and circumstances presented, I have decided to exercise prosecutorial discretion and defer enforcement action for [REDACTED].

This decision is conditioned on that [REDACTED] keep ICE/ERO informed of changes of address, and report any arrests or convictions to ICE/ERO through the local ICE/ERO office.

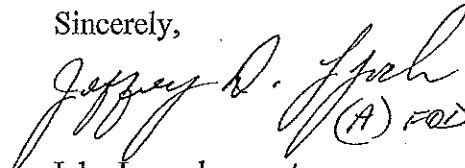

This deferred action shall be in effect until June 26, 2014. During this time, you must remain in compliance with the conditions stated above. Failure to remain in compliance with these conditions may result in a reconsideration of this decision.

This decision is not an immigration benefit and does not confer any lawful immigration status. It may be terminated at any time if the circumstances of this case no longer warrant deferred action. [REDACTED] may apply to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services for employment authorization consistent with 8 C.F.R. § 274a.12(c)(14).

Any departure from the United States while under Deferred Action, with or without permission from the Department of Homeland Security, may result in inadmissibility to the United States. This decision to grant Deferred Action does not entitle re-admittance or parole back into the United States.

Neither this decision nor this letter constitutes a statement of Department of Homeland Security policy applicable to any other individual or matter.

Sincerely,
